GE Capital Solution's Commercial Distribution Finance Unit Provides Multi-Million Dollar Credit Line to Computer Word Processing Systems

HOFFMAN ESTATES, Ill.—January 11, 2008--GE Capital Solutions, Commercial Distribution Finance (CDF), recently approved a multi-million dollar credit line for Computer Word Processing Systems, Inc (CWPS). CWPS, Inc., is a leading provider of information technology solutions for business and government.

"The team at GE Capital Solutions worked with us to ensure we have financing in place to accelerate our growth strategy," said Christine Waldrop, President, CWPS.

"GE is not only providing our inventory financing credit line, but they are also helping us during our busy season with a seasonal line increase."

CDF provides financing that includes accounts receivable working capital loans, purchase order financing, inventory financing and other programs for various industries, including technology and telecommunications.

"As one of the fastest growing Cisco partners, CWPS needed a financial solution that was customized to meet its growth needs," said Tom Grathwohl, managing director of CDF's Technology unit. "We are proud to be CWPS's financier of choice, and look forward to watching the company continue to grow."
