Nexus IS Establishes $25 Million Credit Facility with GE Commercial Finance Unit

HOFFMAN ESTATES, IL, Feb. 13, 2006 – Commercial Distribution Finance (CDF), a unit of GE Commercial Finance, recently established a $25 million credit facility for Nexus IS, Inc. (Nexus Integration Services), a leading provider of Voice Over Internet Protocol (VoIP) infrastructure solutions. The working capital facility provides an innovative credit structure, developed specifically for VoIP value-added resellers (VARs).

“Our two-year credit relationship with GE has allowed us to capitalize on substantial market opportunities, having just achieved 75% revenue growth in 2005,” said Jon Jensen, CEO of Nexus IS. “This expanded facility continues to provide us with both the inventory flooring and working capital requirements necessary to continue our rapid growth, while specifically customized to meet the unique and changing requirements of our business.”

CDF provides financial solutions that include accounts receivable working capital loans, purchase order financing, inventory financing and other programs for various industries, including technology and telecommunications.

“CDF is pleased to provide working capital financing solutions that enable Nexus to expand its business,” said Tom Grathwohl, managing director of CDF's Technology unit. “Nexus also effectively leverages Cisco's channel support programs that are available through CDF. These programs enable Nexus to invest in the advanced technology products and services that are required to complete the complex solutions that Nexus delivers to their customers, and we are pleased to work with them in this process.”
